In accordance with Alt<sup>X</sup> Listings Requirements, shareholders are advised of the risks of investing in a company listed on Alt<sup>X</sup> and are advised that the JSE does not guarantee the viability or the success of a company listed on Alt<sup>X</sup>. In terms of JSE Listings Requirements a Designated Adviser has to be retained by the company. The Designated Adviser is required to, inter alia, attend all board meetings held by the company to ensure that all JSE Listings Requirements and applicable regulations are complied with, approve the financial director of the company and guide the company in a competent, professional and impartial manner. If the company fails to retain a Designated Adviser it must make arrangements to appoint a new Designated Adviser within 10 business days, failing which the company faces suspension of trading of its securities. If a Designated Adviser is not appointed within 30 days of its suspension the company faces the termination of its listing without an offer to minorities.
